Closing Hymn

Who is She Ascends So High

Who is she ascends so high
Next the Heavenly King,
Round about whom angels fly,
And her praises sing?

Who is she adorned with light
Makes the sun her robe?
At whose feet the queen of night,
Lays her changing globe.

Heaven she was which held that Fire
Whence the world took light,
And to heaven doth now aspire,
Flames with flames to unite.

She that did so clearly shine,
When our day begun,
See how bright her beams decline,
Now she sits with the Sun!

Welcome to St. Mary's!

We welcome all our guests and visitors, and encourage you to read the blue pamphlet "Welcome to the Traditional Latin Mass" (available in the vestibule). It explains why we must completely avoid the modern Mass and liturgies introduced since Vatican II.

As regards the reception of Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be a baptized Catholic in the state of grace, and be fasting three hours from food and any alcoholic beverages and one hour from other beverages. Water may be taken at any time.

Out of respect for the Most Blessed Sacrament, please observe the following standards of dress in church:

According to Apostolic teaching and Church Law, women and girls are requested to cover their heads with a suitable hat or veil (1 Cor. 11:5-6, 10). Chapel veils are available for loan in the vestibule.

Women and girls should wear dresses or skirts that completely cover the knees while sitting and standing. Slacks, shorts, sleeveless, or low-cut clothing do not meet the norm of Christian modesty.

Please refrain from wearing jeans, shorts, and other casual attire. Men and boys should wear suit coats and ties. Tee shirts are not acceptable; please wear a collared shirt.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation!
