Closing Hymn

Michael, Prince of All the Angels

Michael, Prince of all the Angels,
While your legions fill the sky,
All victorious over Satan,
Lift your flaming sword on high!
Shout to all the seas and heavens,
Now the morning is begun,
Now is rescued from the dragon,
She whose garment is the sun!

Mighty champion of the Woman,
Mighty servant of her Lord,
Come with all your myriad warriors,
Come and save us with your sword!
Enemies of God surround us,
Share with us your burning love!
Let the incense of our worship,
Rise before His throne above!

Gabriel, messenger to Mary,
Raphael, healer, friend, and guide,
All you hosts of Guardian Angels,
Ever standing by our side!
Virtues, Thrones, and Dominations,
Raise on high your joyful hymn,
Principalities and Powers,
Cherubim and Seraphim!

Church Cleaning (Sept. 22)—Pat

Welcome to St. Mary's!

We welcome all our guests and visitors, and encourage you to read the blue pamphlet "Welcome to the Traditional Latin Mass" (available in the vestibule). It explains why we must completely avoid the modern Mass and liturgies introduced since Vatican II.

As regards the reception of Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be a baptized Catholic in the state of grace, and be fasting three hours from food and any alcoholic beverages and one hour from other beverages. Water may be taken at any time.

Out of respect for the Most Blessed Sacrament, please observe the following standards of dress in church:

According to Apostolic teaching and Church Law, women and girls are requested to cover their heads with a suitable hat or veil (1 Cor. 11:5-6, 10). Chapel veils are available for loan in the vestibule.

Women and girls should wear dresses or skirts that completely cover the knees while sitting and standing. Slacks, shorts, sleeveless, or low-cut clothing do not meet the norm of Christian modesty.

Please refrain from wearing jeans, shorts, and other casual attire. Men and boys should wear suit coats and ties. Tee shirts are not acceptable; please wear a collared shirt.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation!
